

Vase (Illusion)

Two faces, one vase

tête à fleur®

Also available at:

- Amersfoort
MondriaanHouse
- Amsterdam
Metz & Co
Mobilia
Paul Baars Design, Applaus! Producten
Stedelijk Museum CS
The Frozen Fountain
- Frankfurt am Main, Germany
Explora Museum
- Gorinchem
Galerie De Etage
- Groningen
Groninger Museum
- The Hague
Gemeentemuseum Den Haag
Studio '40
- Groningen
Groninger Museum
- Laren
cAg Contemporary Art Gallery
- Leeuwarden
Het Princessehof, Nat. Museum of Ceramics
- Maastricht
Bonnenfantemuseum
- New York, USA
Cooper-Hewitt, National Design Museum
Smithsonian
- Nijmegen
muZIEum, Het ervaringsmuseum
- Rotterdam
Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen
- Scheveningen
Beelden aan Zee
- Spanbroek
Scheringa Museum of Realist Art
- Tokyo, Japan
AXIS Inc. (Roppongi)
BALS Store (Nakameguro)
- Utrecht
Kunst/Werk
Mobach
StrandWest
- Zierikzee
Intazyrvat
- Zwolle
Paleis a/d Blijmarkt, Museum de Fundatie

Têteàfleur®, a vase designed by Paul Baars, consists of two half vases. One shiny black and one shiny white. Either half can be placed against a wall, mirror or eachother. This 'facevase' is based on an old graphic illusion 'two faces, one vase' (1915) by Danish psychologist Edgar J. Rubin. Handmade ceramic vase produced by: Royal Tichelaar Makkum, the Netherlands. Dimensions: H 270mm, Ø 270mm.

© Paul Baars, Amsterdam 2005.
Registration: Shieldmark, Amsterdam 2005

Packing: Corrugated Fibreboard box

